

CIRCUIT COURT FOR CHARLES COUNTY

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER No 2022-06

WHEREAS, due to the outbreak of the novel coronavirus, COVID-19, an emergency exists; and

WHEREAS, the administration of justice necessarily has been affected by the pandemic and will continue to require the professionalism, courtesy, and cooperation of the members of the bench, the bar, and the public in navigating the changes to practices and procedures; and

WHEREAS, Remote hearings have proved to be useful and effective in facilitating the courts' performance of core functions during the COVID-19 emergency and may continue; and

WHEREAS, COVID-19 continues to require the Judiciary to monitor the current phase of operations in the phased approach, moving toward full operational functions, while employing safety measures and monitoring local health conditions to continue to support the health and safety of Maryland residents and Judiciary personnel; and

WHEREAS, The Court of Appeals Amended Administrative Order on the Progressive Resumption of Full Function of Judiciary Operations Previously Restricted Due to the COVID-19 Emergency, filed June 3, 2020, created five phases of a progressive return to operations; and

WHEREAS, the emergence of the highly infectious Omicron variant and in the latter part of 2021 required a return to modified Phase III operations; and

WHEREAS, infection rates have now fallen allowing the return to Phase V operations, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention having issued revised protocols on the wearing of masks, and the majority of local jurisdictions having emerged from mandatory health mandates related to the surge in COVID-19 infections; and

WHEREAS, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, Joseph M. Getty has issued the Fifth Amended Administrative Order Expanding Statewide Judiciary Operations in Light of the COVID-19 Emergency (dated March 2, 2022) authorizing all courts, effective March 7, 2022 to return to normal operations; and under certain circumstances as defined in said Order; and

WHEREAS, after consultation with the Charles County Chief Health Officer and other local county officials in conjunction with the continued falling infection rates in Charles County, this Court has determined it is no longer necessary to mandate the wearing of masks and/or social distancing subject to limitations contained in this Order, and under consideration of the above and for good cause shown,

It is this 28th day of September, 2022, hereby ORDERED, that effective October 3, 2022, the wearing of masks is voluntary for all judges, magistrates, judiciary personnel and all other persons entering the courthouse including during the jury selection process in both criminal and civil jury trials and any other proceeding; and it is further,
