Holidays in bold are major designated Holidays. Please see reverse side for information on how the Holidays are observed.

- Our major designated holidays are New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.
- If the day before New Year's Day or Independence Day is a Monday, or the day after is a Friday, those will be additional designated holidays.
- If Christmas Eve or New Year's Eve is a weekday, Tuesday through Thursday, the County will close at noon.
- The day after Christmas day will become a permanent holiday if Christmas falls on a weekday other than Friday.
- Wednesday before Thanksgiving will become a permanent holiday.
- If a major holiday falls on a Wednesday, then the following Thursday will be observed as well.
