I am an enrolled tribal member and I stand in opposition to the land transfer(s). NO LAND should be given to Francis Gray as he is not the representative of this tribe. He has tried to hijack this position and perpetrate to the outsiders that he is in charge, but he is not. I stand with Chief Swann and ask that no land be transferred until our community lawsuit has been finalized and the county can assure us that there are no hazards with the building and/or grounds of this property. Francis Gray should not receive anything on our behalf. He has never held any community meeting about this or provide financials to our community in more than a decade. Please see my attached opposition.
