I fully support Chief Swann and am an enrolled tribal citizen in the Piscataway Conoy Tribe. I do not support Francis Gray as he is not in charge of our tribe, which means he should NOT be requesting and/or receiving any land donations. Our community voted him out in 2017 and he has been misrepresenting himself as "in charge" incorrectly for the last eight years. Our community has filed suit against him in court and ask that you Commissioners do not award him any transfer of land. We did not ask him to do so nor do we support anything he does. My opposition and that of my community members should be listened to carefully and not the outside people from our tribe. See my signed opposition letter attached.
