As a member of the Piscataway Conoy Tribe, I am definitely in favor of of the Cedarville land being presented to our tribe. Council Chief Francis Gray is a strong leader of our tribe and has reflected the skills to be a responsible custodian of this land. A cultural center could be developed to reflect our history and provide training to create Piscataway Conoy jewelry, pouches, beadwork,etc. The center will provide an educational environment for traditional dancing, drumming and all cultural events. A location to hold the PowWow (traditional Native American event) would allow the community to conduct this activity at least twice a year. In summary to have a dedicated place for meetings, training, event planning, cultural activities, and museum displays—would be beneficial for our tribe.
