The Honorable Charles County Commissioners, I am writing this letter in support of Francis Gray and his efforts to obtain the land that once belonged to the Piscataway Conoy Tribe. Through his dedication and leadership, Francis Gray has maintained the support of many tribal members and has shown the ability to build a great community. With this land, the Piscataway Conoy Tribe will be able to bring back and maintain the knowledge, culture, and heritage of our ancestors. Francis Gray has proven to be loyal to our community, which has also helped the younger generations grow in their own heritage to carry it forward. It is a great need that we have a great leader like Francis Gray to continue the teachings of our heritage.
