RE: PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT REQUEST

Dear Requestor:

The Office of the County Attorney for Charles County Government is in receipt of your Public Information Act submission through the online Public Information Act request system, in accordance with the Md. Code. Ann., General Provisions §§ 4-101-4-601. Specifically, you requested "Meeting minutes, agenda, or any documentation associated with a comparison cost-analysis/feasibility study associated with the Capital Clubhouse and the Waldorf Senior Center and Recreational Center."

Charles County Government has completed its review of responsive records, and documents of a comparison cost-analysis/feasibility study concerning the two facilities requested does not exist. This response is being offered as final disposition of your request. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions or concerns regarding the foregoing information. I can be reached by email at mitcheld@charlescountymd.gov. You may also contact the Public Access Ombudsman pursuant to GP §4-1B-01, et seq., if you have any concerns about this response.

Thank you,

Charles County passes controversial WCD

by Joseph Norris
June 8, 2017

La Plata, MD – The Charles County Commissioners voted 3-2 Tuesday, June 6 to pass the controversial Watershed Conservation District zoning and text map amendment into law.

The movement to protect the fragile headwaters of Mattawoman Creek and limit development on more than 37,000 acres places stringent zoning in effect, limiting developers to one home per 20 acres. Commissioner Debra Davis [D-District 2] made no bones about her opposition to the amendments.

"I am disappointed it has gotten this far," Davis said. "This is by far the most divisive issue I have seen in my six-and-a-half years as county commissioner."

Both Davis and fellow commissioner Bobby Rucci [D-District 4], who tried in vain once again to have the issue brought before the county in a referendum vote, voted against the proposal, even down to voting against simple typographical errors in the text of the document being corrected.

"I am disappointed it has gotten this far," Davis said. "This is by far the most divisive issue I have seen in my six-and-a-half years as county commissioner."

Both Davis and fellow commissioner Bobby Rucci [D-District 4], who tried in vain once again to have the issue brought before the county in a referendum vote, voted against the proposal, even down to voting against simple typographical errors in the text of the document being corrected.

"I didn't vote for those amendments because it's putting lipstick on a pig," she said. "You can put lipstick on a pig, but it's still a pig."

"Good leaders would defer to the community," she added. "These amendments just further divide the people. That is wrong. Before you take away people's property rights, I beg my colleagues not to do this."

"We do not have the right to pick and choose people's property rights," Rucci agreed.

Commissioner Ken Robinson [D-District 1] added an amendment to include the now-defunct Indian Head Technical Park in the WCD and the commercial mixed-use designation in Bryans Road as a village rather than a commercial and industrial zone and to include an airport overlay zone to allow new commercial development around the airport.

That measure, along with every typo correction and amendment proposed, passed by a 3-2 margin, with Robinson, Commissioner Amanda Stewart [D-District 3] and Commissioner President Peter Murphy [D] voting in favor, while Davis and Rucci cast their vote as opposed.

Loosely translated, the 9th Commandment tells us don't lie about someone because you can't handle the truth.

It is beneath elected officials to publicly call any constituent a liar, nasty, a sexist, accuse one of harassment, or allows others to label people of color on their own social media or followed pages as thugs, ghetto, trash, and every other derogatory term but the N-word and then have the gall to state they will pray for me for asking questions regarding their political accountability, transparency, and integrity?

As it states in Galatians 6:7, "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows," and should not be using religion in vain. This is why I feel compelled to provide the truth to certain commissioners and their devout followers with credible and authenticated sources.

1) The spouse of Commissioner Stewart was a 2025 recipient (formally known as Christmas in April and renamed Rebuilding Charles County) of a $30k grant from the Charitable Trust

<https://www.rtcharlescounty.org/about-us/> [SEE ATTACHMENT 2]

2) Commissioner Stewart stated she had no idea her spouse was a 2025 Recipient (formally known as Christmas in April and renamed Rebuilding Charles County) of a $30k grant from the Charitable Trust even though she sits or sat on the same non-profit's board of the spouse member

3) Commissioner Stewart lied to constituents as it has been determined no feasibility study or research was conducted on the Capital Clubhouse to determine if it could be used as an alternative and/or additional multi-purpose sports center.

[SEE ATTACHMENT 4]

4) Commissioners Bowling/Stewart have repeatedly accused their colleagues of bowing down to developers yet as early as 2016, Commissioner Bowling has received at least $60k in campaign donations (to include $17,500 from Chaney Enterprises) related to commercial and/or residential development while Commissioner Stewart has not accused her "Buddy" of the same.

<https://campaignfinance.maryland.gov/Home/Disclosures> [SEE ATTACHMENTS 5]

5) Commissioner Bowling paid approximately $13,000 to a now dissolved Nevada-based online advertising company to run anti-Charter ads.

<https://esos.nv.gov/EntitySearch/BusinessInformation> [SEE ATTACHMENT 6]

<https://campaignfinance.maryland.gov/Home/Disclosures> [SEE ATTACHMENT 7]

6) Commissioner Bowling, a self-proclaimed Democratic, paid approximately $7,000 to a McShane, LLC, a Republican-based media consulting group with such clients as The State Republican Party of Minnesota, Texas, Nevada, North Carolina, and Maryland to run anti-Charter ads.

<https://rmcstrategy.com/clients/> [SEE ATTACHMENT 9]

7) In 2017, despite strong citizen opposition, the controversial pro-Watershed Conservation District vote occurred during Commissioner Stewart's first year in office and created several authoritarian provisions while pleasing the Sierra Club, a special interest group.

- a. Limited new residential development to one house per 20 acres
- b. Limited impervious surfaces to 8% of the area within a parcel, with exceptions for smaller lots
- c. Allowed lots of 10 acres or larger to be subdivided for family members up to two additional lots
- d. Maintained former zoning of areas zoned for commercial and business park use
- e. Took away any possibility of allowing industrial use of hundreds of acres around the Maryland airport in Bryans Road

In closing, these so-called Christians, have labeled me a loser, a menace to society, a loose cannon, desperate, and my favorite...I must hate my life....

So to my so-called Christians, because of you I will continue to...

- a) Assist with providing high school seniors college scholarships
- b) Mentor youth and advocate for special needs children and their parents
- c) Donate personal funds/time to countless nonprofits without the expectation of personal gain
- d) Proudly serve my country not only as a civil servant but as retired military-war veteran

Furthermore, I am a man who...

- a) owns his mistakes
- b) never been accused or charged with domestic violence or any crime
- c) takes care of his kids and loves spending quality time with his family; and
- d) his word is his bond

They should expect tough questions and constituents deserve a response which addresses what they claim yet publicly criticize their 3 colleagues for lacking...accountability, transparency, and integrity.

In addition, Commissioner Stewart, I have never been pressed about losing an election for a part-time job for which it seems you need more than me, where in District 3 the two main weekend attractions, and respectfully, are a cigar joint and a chicken fast-food chain.

My advice, the next time Commissioner Bowling/Stewart want to personally attack a constituent for asking accountability questions about their elected job...don't.

So Commissioners Bowling/Stewart please don't pray for me because I am good with my God and HE knows I have nothing to hide nor lie about. Instead, I will end this back and forth because both of them have proven to master the art of deflection and I can say these topics have finally run its course.

However, I will pray for them because as it states in Acts 20:35, "it is more blessed to give than to receive" while keeping in mind in Luke 12:3, "Therefore, whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light." So let the truth set them free as I can foresee brighter days.

V/r,

Derrick Terry
