

Meet your local IRS Stakeholder Liaison!

Christopher Green is a Stakeholder Liaison with the Internal Revenue Service, located in Baltimore, Maryland. As a Stakeholder Liaison, he focuses on local engagements with individuals and industry-driven organizations to provide information about the policies, practices, and procedures the IRS uses to ensure compliance with the tax laws.

Christopher has fifteen years of experience in the banking industry; working with consumer and business account owners to achieve economic success and financial security. Furthermore, Christopher has several years of tax preparatory services. He has assisted taxpayers understand tax liability, publications & forms, how to file returns, bookkeeping, and many other accounting services to support economic development.

Christopher is an Alumnus of Bowie State University, where he obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Business, with a concentration in Accounting. He has volunteered with various organizations across the state of Maryland making significant impact in impressionable minds (including Project Homelessness, 10,000 Small Business Goldman Sachs Program, Center for Urban Families - The Father Hood Program, and many more).