

Darlene Breck

Darlene Breck is the founder and president of the Southern Maryland Business Center located at 10665 Stanhaven Place, White Plains. Since 2003 she has been working successfully with many local small businesses and organizations, and currently provides office suites and services for over forty different companies. One of her primary goals is helping small businesses grow in Southern Maryland.

Extremely active in the community, Darlene is a past president of the Charles County Chamber of Commerce and past Chair of the Board for the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center Foundation. She served on the Maryland Commission for Women. In 2018 she was recognized by Maryland Governor Hogan, US Senator Cardin, and US House of Representatives Leader Steny Hoyer for her induction into the Community Foundation of Southern Maryland's Philanthropy Hall of Fame.

In 2014 she was elected as Judge of the Orphans Court and in 2015 she was appointed as the Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for Charles County by the Governor of Maryland. She was re-elected to that position in 2018 and again in 2022 where she still serves as Chief Judge. She currently serves as an active board member of the Maryland Association of Orphans Court Judges.

Darlene volunteers as a part of many other clubs and organizations in Southern Maryland, strongly believing that being involved is the best part of contributing to the local community. She has volunteered as a Grief Share facilitator at New Life Church offering solace and support to individuals and families grappling with loss.
