LEGENDS, LORE AND ROOM TO EXPLORE

DAY 1

Travel to Charles County, MD where Atlantic Kayak guides will provide you with a kayak tour of The Ghost Fleet at Mallows Bay, the largest ship graveyard in the Western Hemisphere. Visit the Mattawoman Creek Art Center to view local artist's exhibits. Stop in to Clarity Coffee House to recharge before you take a short drive along the scenic back roads that will bring you to the town of La Plata where you will have time to explore the many art galleries, unique shopping, and restaurants, including The Charles, Charles County's own Farm to Table Restaurant. Enjoy an evening with the Port Tobacco Players for an entertaining theater performance.

Charles County is rich in its agricultural history, start your day with a visit to Shlagel Farms for some family friendly fun of strawberry picking in the spring, farmers market in the summer, and pumpkin picking in the fall. Travel to Maxwell Hall to tour this historic home that is rich in Charles County history and the War of 1812. Have lunch at Ray's Pier overlooking the Patuxent River while dining on fresh local seafood. Take a short drive to Blue Dyer Distilling Company and tour Charles County's first local distillery with more than 5 generations and 100 years of family distilling traditions. Stop in and catch a minor league Baseball game with our Southern Maryland Blue Crabs. Grab a late dinner and enjoy the night life at Ollie's Bar and Grill after the game.
